The Endless Possibilities of a Bacon Bowl

This is a bacon bowl.

Most people fill it with eggs and call it a day.

Amateurs. The stuffing possibilities are endless!

Mac and cheese is another no-brainer.

Don't worry, just add salad to make it healthy.

Or go big with some ice cream.

Shrimp scampi never knew it was missing a bacon bowl, but it was.

Bacon bowls are definitely the new burger buns.

And taco shells.

Just trust us on this one. Bacon adds a salty kick to cinnamon buns.

No chips needed for guacamole in a bacon bowl, just break bits off and dip.

There's also oatmeal, kale, buffalo chicken, mashed potatoes and even more bacon with a candle on top!

And may we suggest fried rice, chili, hash browns, kettle corn, carbonara pasta, seven layer dip and more?

Bacon bowls. What American dreams are made of.
